South Jersey Progressive Dems Formalize Organization Structure Kate Delany Elected President

Collingswood municipal committee chair, Kate Delany, was elected President of the South Jersey Progressive Democrats at groups the reorganization meeting on Monday, December 2nd.

Also elected were:

Vice President - Katie Ingersoll, Collingswood

Treasurer - Patrick Mooney, Medford

Secretary - Rena Margulis, Cherry Hill

Membership Director - Linda Rubiano, Pennsauken

Communications Director - Kristen Affrime, Cherry Hill

Elections Director - Chris Emrich, Collingswood

Organizing Director - Adam Sheridan, Berlin

South Jersey Progressive Democrats (SJPD) began as a grassroots organization in 2017 and has grown to provide a well-organized countywide challenge to the Democratic machine candidates in 2019. The SJPD has built progressive coalitions across New Jersey. By holding formal elections and adopting bylaws, the group is positioning to continue the work of restoring democracy to New Jersey.

Delaney had this to say following the meeting: “I am honored to have been elected to lead this organization forward in the fight to Take Back NJ. Together we can meet the machine with a movement!”

###

South Jersey Progressive Democrats is a grassroots organization working to restore democracy to South Jersey. We stand for transparent, accountable government that works for the people.
